

Advocates
for Children

QUACKY CASH SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION

Advocates for Children

What is Advocates for Children?

Advocates for Children provides direct care to children who are victims of abuse and neglect and offers eight distinct programs that focus on the prevention of child abuse and on crucial elements of family wellness.

Our regional office is located in Bartow county but we serve 11 counties throughout northwest Georgia.

What is Duck Derby?

Advocates for Children hosts Duck Derby annually; this year we're celebrating 21 years of ducks! The Duck Derby is a really Quacky concept. Ducks are sold in various packages ranging from $5-$250.

BACK TO THE
RIVER
MAY 13, 2023

Duck adoptions (entries) for our duck race are sold to friends, family members and businesses and one the lucky duck winner will receive $10,000! The adoptions/ race entries are sold in various packages, ranging from $5 to $250. The duck race will take place on May 13 at 2 p.m. and the lucky duck winner will be announced that day!

*Winners do not have to be present to win. Must be 18 or older to receive the cash award

BACK TO THE
RIVER
MAY 13, 2023

Who Wins Duck Derby?

On the day of the big event, 20,000 ducks will race and one lucky ducky will cross the finish line in the Etowah River and be declared the winner. The duck who finishes first will be the grand prize winner and take home the $10,000 prize.

HAVE YOU EVER SEEN 20,000
RUBBER DUCKS
RACE TO A FINISH LINE?

What is Quacky Cash?

Quacky Cash is a competition for graduating high school seniors! They compete to win cash awards that can be used to help them pay for college or post-graduation expenses.

1st Prize = $5000 Scholarship

2nd Prize = $2500 Scholarship

3rd Prize = $1000 Scholarship

What Makes Duck Derby 2023 so Special?

After 21 years of racing, Duck Derby 2023 is returning to where the race started... the Etowah River in Euharlee! This will be the last year Advocates for Children will host the Duck Derby so this will be a super special celebration. The Class of 2023 will be the last class who get to participate in the Quacky Cash Competition.

Quacky Cash Rules

Eligibility Requirements:

- High School Senior and scheduled to graduate in May 2023
- Live in Bartow County
- Parent/Guardian must sign consent for students to participate

Special Contest Rules:

- Sell a minimum of 500 ducks to be eligible for any cash prize
- Be willing to turn in adoption papers weekly

A FEW QUICK RULES

How Will I Sell Ducks?

- Ducks can be purchased online by your duck adopters
- You can sell ducks using our Duck Adoption papers/tickets
- We will provide you with a great guide "Duck Sales - 101 Ideas" to help you be successful with your ducks sales

Can Parents Help Sell Ducks?

ABSOLUTELY!

How Parents Can Be Helpful:

- Use their social media to share your Quacky Cash
- Sell ducks to family, friends, neighbors, co-workers, etc.

OK, I'm In! What is my next steps for the Quacky Cash Competition?

If you are interested in participating in our Quacky Cash competition, please visit www.advochild.org and look for the Quacky Cash Logo on the homepage to fill out an application.

Look for me on the Advocate's Website!

The Deadline to apply is Friday, March 24th!

OK, I'm In! What is my next steps for the Quacky Cash Competition?

When you've completed the online application to participate, you will be sent an email with instructions for attending our virtual Quacky Cash training on Tuesday, March 28th at 6:00 PM.

After completing the training, your Quacky Cash packet and adoption papers will be delivered to your school so you can start selling!

Do you still have questions?
We are here to help!

Email Phoebe Floyd, Marketing and Communications Manager, at Phoebe@advochild.org.